

Dear CA-10 District Members,

We are delighted that you are interested in traveling to our nation's capital. With so much to do, see, and learn about, visiting Washington, D.C. can be one of the most rewarding and exciting experiences. To help you make the most of your trip, my staff and I can help you in planning and reserving tickets to some of the capital's most popular destinations. These sites include tours of the Capitol Building, the Supreme Court, the Library of Congress, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Kennedy Center, and the White House. Please keep in mind that tickets are issued on a first-come, first-served basis, and many of the tours that we offer require that reservations be made at least a few months in advance. To place a tour request, please visit my website and fill out the tour request form under the "Serving You" tab.

No matter which attractions you choose to see, I hope that you will stop by my office in the Longworth Building at some point in your trip. Utilizing the metro is the best option when visiting Capitol Hill, with the closest stop being Capitol South. Information on additional attractions and traveling tips are included below to help make your trip safer and more convenient. Any questions that you may have before or during your trip can be directed to my office at (202) 225-4540.

We look forward to meeting you. On behalf of my entire office, we hope you have an enjoyable and memorable time when visiting Washington, D.C.

Happy travels,

Jeff Denham
United States Representative

Traveling Tips

There are many ways of traveling to, from, and within Washington, D.C. Here is some helpful information that will hopefully make your trip to the capital safe and enjoyable.

Air Transportation

Reagan National Airport
Located in Arlington, VA across from the Potomac and can be accessed by the blue/yellow lines on the Metro.

Washington Dulles International Airport
Located in Chantilly, VA and has served as a major hub for both domestic and international air travel. Bus access to West Falls Church Metro Station is available via Washington Flyer Coach Service. <http://www.washfly.com/coach.html>

Ground Transportation

Union Station
Not only does it serve as a central location for ground transportation into the District of Columbia, but it also serves as one of the city's busiest places. Ground transportation includes both bus and train terminals as well as access to the Metrorail.

Metrorail and Metrobus
Arguably the most convenient way to travel around the capital. Stations are located throughout the District of Columbia and extend into Maryland and Virginia. Farecards are available at every Metrorail station. When travelling to the Capitol, we suggest taking the Orange/Blue line to the Capitol South Station. www.wmata.com
